

VACANCY: DIRECTOR

5-YEAR CONTRACT (1 July 2026 -30 June 2031)

Salary R1,300 000 – R1,600 000

(Total Cost to Company)

Amazwi South African Museum of Literature is a Schedule 3A national public entity governed by the Cultural Institutions Act, Act No. 119 of 1998, as amended, and the Public Finance Management Act, Act No. 1 of 1999, as amended. It operates under the jurisdiction of a Council appointed by the Minister of Arts and Culture. The Director is the Accounting Officer in terms of the Public Finance Management Act, Act No. 1 of 1999, as amended. The Director is appointed by the Council and reports to the Council, which is a statutory body appointed by the Minister of Sport, Arts and Culture.

Amazwi Museums covers three sites: the headquarters in Makhanda, the Eastern Star Printing and Press Museum, also in Makhanda, and Olive Schreiner House Museum in Nxuba (formerly Cradock), Eastern Cape. Amazwi's vision is to be a dynamic museum that celebrates South Africa's literary heritage with a mission to collect, preserve and research South African literature and make it accessible to all. The museums strategic goals are to: 1) maintain organizational sustainability; 2) develop a well-managed collection; 3) add to the body of knowledge on South African literature; 4) promote access through the medium of exhibitions; and 5) increase access through educational and public programmes.

The Museum seeks to appoint a suitably qualified, committed, and experienced Director with proven leadership ability on a five-year contract, to lead a well-established organisation. This is an opportunity to help create a caring, value-driven museum of excellence. The successful individual will be based in Makhanda, Eastern Cape.

The Director will lead the development of a long-term vision and sustainable strategic direction for the museum. The Director's strategic focus will be to further develop and sustain the organization as a successful, forward-looking heritage institution balancing internal and external relationships, considering the social, political, financial, and technical environment over the tenure of the position. An essential component of the role will be building collaborative relationships to support the organisation's continued success and development in the years ahead.

The successful candidate will have the personal qualities, leadership skills and knowledge to build on the strengths of the team and drive the changes that will further position the museum as an inclusive, accessible, and engaging heritage institution and as a cultural organization that attracts increasing support from people of diverse communities. The successful candidates will be expected to demonstrate experience or capability of providing strategic advice and guidance to the Council.

The successful candidate will be responsible for leading a small team and reporting to the Council and will be responsible for driving the overall performance of the organisation, giving substance to the vision and translating its strategic plans into action.
