

A Family

Thursday 17.09, 14:00 (87 minutes)

The Netherlands / Belgium. Drama.

A quiet, powerful window on divorce in modern Europe told empathetically through the eyes of a brother and sister each trying to each find their own ways through the aftermath of the bitter war between their parents.

Colours of Time

Monday 21.09, 10:00 (120 minutes)

France. Comedy drama.

A sumptuously realized family drama weaving together stories from one family's 19th century past and their 21st century present. A memorably delightful and touching exploration of art, family and history.

Porcelain War

Monday 21.09, 14:00 (87 minutes)

Ukraine / United States / Australia. Documentary.

Three nature lovers and artists, bound together by their passion for creating delicate, detailed porcelain figurines before the war in Ukraine, find themselves on the frontline as they take up arms in the struggle for Ukrainian liberation.

Christy

Tuesday 22.09, 10:00 (90 minutes)

Ireland. Drama.

A lovingly crafted Irish social realist story of home and brotherhood that refreshingly pushes beyond despair and misery in favour of often bright, quietly humorous celebration of the spirit and character of the working-class heroes of its Cork setting.
